MY LAS VEGAS MARKET

ESSENTIAL: My market essential is to bring an open heart to what you feel beauty is, keep your eye and more importantly your heart out for how a piece or design makes you feel!

THE TRENDS I'M EXCITED FOR IN 2020: I try very hard to stay away from any trends but I do appreciate that play on pattern is being seen more and more.

I appreciate the use of monochromatic schemes I'm seeing as well for the right room.

I appreciate the use of cabinetry — I am seeing more and more built-ins!

THE TRENDS I HOPE ARE ON THEIR WAY OUT: Again I tend to go opposite of trends so I don't pay much attention to them. My favorite design quote is by style icon Karl Lagerfeld when he said, "Trendy is the last stage before tacky."

MY DESIGN STYLE IN THREE WORDS: Timeless, Thoughtful, Alive

MY FAVORITE LAS VEGAS MARKET MEMORY: My favorite Las Vegas Market memory was back when I was 23 and just starting out. I knew what I loved but was still unsure and not quite believing in myself. With confidence waning, I showed some of my work to a designer there I had just met who was much older than I was. She stopped me mid sentence and said you are so talented but lack faith in yourself! Find that faith and nothing can stop you. I have tried to take that advice to heart from the moment I heard it and am forever grateful for her words!
